Mayor Angie Paserchia

+ 1931 - 2015

Angelina M. Paserchia was a former Mayor of Belleville and a dedicated public servant whose decades of leadership left a lasting mark on the community. First elected to the Belleville Board of Education in 1991, she later served on the Township Council and was chosen by her colleagues to serve as Deputy Mayor and then Mayor. During her tenure, she championed the planting of more than 3,500 cherry blossom trees, helping earn Belleville the title "Cherry Blossom Capital of America."
